

UNIVERSITAS ISLAM MALANG

FROM NU FOR INDONESIA AND WORLD CIVILIZATION

Greeting and Warm Regards

Welcome to Universitas Islam Malang (UNISMA), a higher education institution under the auspices of the Ministry of Research, Technology, and Higher Education of the Republic of Indonesia and Nahdlatul Ulama (NU), that is firmly committed to nurturing graduates with strong morality, integrity, academic excellence, and global competitiveness, grounded in the noble values of Islam Ahlussunnah wal Jama'ah.

UNISMA continues to grow as a dynamic and inclusive academic community that integrates intellectual development, ethical character, and social responsibility. We currently offer 38 study programs across undergraduate, master's, and doctoral levels, supported by qualified academic staff, modern learning facilities, and a student-centered academic environment. Our commitment to quality assurance is reflected in our achievements, including seven internationally accredited programs, 19 programs accredited nationally as "Excellent," and institutional accreditation rated "Excellent" since 2022.

On both national and international stages, UNISMA has earned recognition through reputable global rankings, strong research performance, and various institutional achievements. We actively encourage innovation, interdisciplinary research, and community engagement as part of our contribution to sustainable development and societal well-being.

Prof. Drs. H. Junaidi, M.Pd., Ph.D.
RECTOR

UNISMA is committed to internationalization through global partnerships, exchange programs, and cross-cultural academic activities, welcoming students, alumni and partners from more than 40 countries. We invite students, scholars, and partners worldwide to collaborate and contribute to knowledge, ethical values, and cultural diversity.

Malang City at a Glance

Malang is a dynamic city nestled in the cool highlands of East Java, Indonesia, blending natural beauty, cultural heritage, and a vibrant academic environment. Often referred to as the “Paris of East Java,” Malang is surrounded by scenic landscapes, including beautiful beaches and iconic mountains such as those within the Bromo Tengger Semeru National Park. As a major education hub, Malang is home to more than 50 private higher education institutions, including Universitas Islam Malang (UNISMA). This strong academic ecosystem attracts students from across Indonesia and around the world, creating a lively and cosmopolitan atmosphere that supports innovation and intellectual growth.

Malang City at a Glance

Malang is also a popular destination for international students due to its affordable living costs, diverse culinary scene, and warm, welcoming community. From the historic charm of Kajoetangan Heritage to the city's thriving creative industries, art festivals, and urban lifestyle, Malang offers a balanced blend of tradition and modernity. Located nearby, Batu City complements Malang as a scenic highland destination known for its cool climate, natural attractions, and agro-tourism. Renowned for horticulture, education, and sustainable tourism, Batu City provides additional opportunities for recreation, learning, and environmental appreciation.

Together, Malang and Batu form an inspiring region where academic excellence, cultural diversity, and natural beauty come together to support both personal and professional development.
